🌸🌸 Muslims used to pray for sometime at night and call these prayers (salat at'tahajjud) and this occurs in the last ten days of Ramadan and this is a good deed and approved action because of the great blessing of that time and seeking for responding calls according to the Holy Quran" And in some parts of the night offer the salat with it, as additional prayer for you, it may be that your Lord will raise you to a Maqam (a station of praise and glory)" 17- 79.
