

UNDERSTANDING WORSHIP IN ISLAM

Deeds should agree with the book of Allah, a believer should follow the book of Allah in his work and in his profession, for example:

As for merchants or sellers:

They shouldn't be only careful to recite Qur'an or perform Hajj and Omrah every year, but they should be careful to get the good goods that not harm people, they shouldn't deceit in price. If they do this, the prophet pleases them and says to them:

*"A truthful honest merchant will be with prophets, Seddekeen (veracious people) and Al-Shohadaa (martyrs) at the Day of Judgment."*¹

They follows this in their trade and in all matters of life.
