

May the blessing and peace of Allah be upon the master of those who were perfectly chosen, whom Allah purified his heart by revealing the verses of Allah, the All-Mighty and the Forgiver, our master Mohammed, the place of divine grants, whom Allah revealed the verses of Koran upon his heart and protected him from self desires, apparent and hidden motives. Allah made his truthful tongue never speaks of his own desires in all matters of this life and the hereafter, may Allah pray upon him, his wise relatives, his merciful companions, all those who follow their guidance to the day of resurrection and upon all of us with them, amen, amen O Lord of the worlds.
