

Prophets of Allah

Praise be to Allah, who overwhelmed us by His satisfaction, He endowed our hearts with His pure Islam and belief, He made us among those who know Him in this life, we beg Him to make us among those who enjoy seeing His beauty and those He is satisfied with them in the Hereafter. Blessings and peace be upon the beloved that his Lord beautified him by what He loves from divine manners and perfection.

The prophet (May the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) once went out to his companions, they were talking about previous prophets, his companions were inspired people, they told facts chosen and mentioned by Allah in His glorious book, one of them said:

"It is amazing that Allah made close friends from people, He made Abraham a close friend, another said: It is more amazing that Allah talked to Moses, another said: Jesus is Allah's word and His spirit, another said: Adam was chosen by Allah. The beloved heard this conversation while he was inside his room, he was happy and pleased because he knew they seek the unseen and were inspired knowledge from Allah the Knower of the unseen and this is what is needed from them. He went out to them, he said: Assalam Alaykom (peace be upon you) and he (May the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him) said: I heard your talk and your surprise, Abraham is Allah's close friend and he is, Moses is the talker to Allah and he is, Jesus is Allah's spirit and His word and he is and Adam was chosen by Allah and he is, Oh I am Allah's beloved and I don't boast by this."¹

The degree of being beloved is what we should keep asking for, it deserves to exert precious things for it because we all hope to get Allah's love to inherit Allah's beloved and chosen (May the blessings and peace of Allah be upon him).

It is Allah's bounty and His generosity that He opened for all of us endless doors, if man enters any door of them while he is truthful, he will get Allah's love, that who wants to be loved by Allah, what should he do?
